

Adjectives

1. Complete the text with adjectives made from the nouns given in capitals.

Young people today hope that, by gaining 1) _____ or _____ PROFESSION
2) _____ qualifications from colleges and universities PRACTICE they will be able to get good jobs. But it is 3) _____ DOUBT whether the 4) _____ world will be able to fit in so many COMMERCE
5) _____ young graduates, even if they are 6) _____ in HOPE/SUCCESS their studies. Those who have 7) _____ training and some SCIENCE work experience, or 8) _____ contacts with the company PERSON of their choice, may be 9) _____, but a large proportion LUCK of graduates will face a future of 10) _____ job-hunting END and, sadly, 11) _____ income. VARIETY

2. Complete each sentence with the correct word from the pair in brackets.

1. Evie looked (angry/angrily) at her mother.
2. I'm feeling quite (comfortable/comfortably) now, thank you.
3. Your casserole smells (wonderful/wonderfully).
4. You'd do it more (easy/easily) if you took your time.
5. The presenter tasted the mixture (thoughtful/thoughtfully).
6. Julio seems rather (sad/sadly) today.
7. The burglar felt his way (careful/carefully) across the roof.
8. The new traffic scheme sounds (excellent/excellently).

3. Complete the sentences by finding the correct adjective form of the verb in brackets.

1. He's always (amuse) by Charlie Chaplin films.
2. I thought the party was rather (bore).
3. The experience was absolutely (terrify).
4. We were (disgust) by Georgia's comments.
5. Stephen was (frighten) by the mysterious phone call.
6. Our holiday in Alaska was (thrill).
7. Susan is extremely (interest) in history.